

Beauty & The Bass

Like many covers bands, Beauty And the Bass play familiar music in a wide range of styles, from classical to blues, country, reggae, jazz, pop and rock. What sets the band apart is their unique choice of instruments: ukuleles, recorders and double bass. It's a combination which shouldn't work, but somehow does.

Expect a thoroughly good time, with laughs, outbreaks of dancing - and a complete reappraisal of everything you thought you knew about ukuleles and recorders.
